OJ-0000 CHART-COMMONALITY

OJ-0000 CHART-COMMONALITY

Drawing 1 of 33

The following chart contains a list of Service Literature that is available for the Hydraulic Excavators that were manufactured for the Inside Japan Market (ISJ) only. The English Literature column that is listed in the chart is for similar Hydraulic Excavators that were manufactured for the Outside Japan Market (OSJ) and should be used for reference only. The media listed in the ISJ column of the chart indicates a PDF file is available in English for the Japanese Market Machine. To view the PDF file, go to the "Additional Service Information" in SIS Web and select "Japanese Market Designed Equipment."

Disclaimer: Caterpillar is providing this commonality chart for the convenience of machine owners. In providing this commonality chart or any related information, Caterpillar is not making any representation or warranty that a machine is, or will be, compliant with the regulations or laws of any country or region. Caterpillar expressly disclaims any reliance on this commonality chart and related information for purposes of making the determination that a machine is or is not compliant with the regulations or laws of any country or region.
